

As an amateur radio operator who is involved in emergency communications, I am concerned that this resource needs to be protected. I use the low-VHF bands in my communications and am concerned that the BPL systems will interfere with these emergency communications. I urge the FCC to honor its promise to protect the licensed users of the amateur radio bands. Thank you.